

Freelance Reflection Questionnaire

(For use after hearing a speaker on the Holocaust)

Directions: After listening to our speaker, complete the following questions. Due to the serious nature of this content matter, please be respectful with your answers. Proofread carefully for grammar and spelling errors.

1. Before hearing our speaker, what was your prior knowledge of the Holocaust?
2. Have you ever known or met a Holocaust survivor before? If so, who? What were the circumstances of your meeting, and how were you affected by this person?
3. What do you feel was the most moving or compelling detail that our speaker spoke about?
4. What was the most horrifying or surprising piece of information that they mentioned?
5. Discuss one aspect of the Holocaust you learned from this experience that you did not know before?
6. What was the most beneficial aspect of hearing our speaker today and why?
7. Do you believe it is important for all people to meet a Holocaust survivor or hear their story? Why or why not?
8. If you had the opportunity to voice only one thought or reaction about this experience, what would you tell your peers?
9. If you had to sum up this experience in only one word, what word would you choose?

Thanks to Amanda Beason, Leeds High School, and Shannon Marks, Spain Park High School, for sharing this lesson with us. May 2010